

Board of Examinations for Seafarers Trust

Eligibility Criteria for IV Exam - Deck Side Exam under IV Act-1917

FORMAT- IVE-MMD Kol-02 D
DATE:
REV No.:

Eligibility criteria required for appearing IV examination under IV Act 1917 – Deck Side

Deck Side	Serang	2 nd class Master	1 st class Master
Age	Minimum 21 years at the time of application	Minimum 24 years at the time of application (+) COC as Serang	Minimum 25 years (+) COC as 2 nd class Master
Nationality	Indian
Sea service	5 years (in which 1 year as helmsman)	3 years as Helmsman (282 BHP) or 3 years as Certified Serang (110 BHP) or 2 years Certified Serang (110 BHP) plus 2 year Helmsman (any BHP on IV)	2 years as Master- In-charge(any BHP) / 4 years sea service after holding COC as 2 nd Master or 1 year sea service as 2 nd Mate having COC of 2 nd Mate (under MS Act) or 6 months sea service as 2 nd Mate having COC of 1 st Mate (under MS Act) (Note – Minimum age for 2 nd mate or 1 st Mate COC holder, should be 22 Yrs. at the time of application.)
Educational Requirement	*8 th Pass (VIII - Pass)	SSC Pass from the recognized board	SSC Pass from the recognized board
Medical requirement	Eye Sight test and color blindness Test by DG approved Medical Examiner	Eye Sight test and color blindness Test by DG approved Medical Examiner	Eye Sight test and color blindness Test by DG approved Medical Examiner
Registration	Vessel must be registered with authorised registrar of the respective geographical regions.
Remarks	If failed, further 3 months service required on same position

Note: -

* For the benefit of traditional seafarers / backwards IV - candidates, who have not acquired the required educational qualification due to any reason, the requirement of educational qualification of such candidates has been waived off. Such candidates will be made eligible for appearing in the examination provided they put up double Sea service as applicable than the candidates having the required educational qualification. The purpose of this is to allow him to develop his knowledge required for the requisite examination.